

There Is An Old Belief

Songs of Farewell, No. 4

John Gibson Lockhart (1794-1854)

C. Hubert H. Parry (1848-1918)

p Slow ♩ = 70 poco cresc.

Soprano I
There is an old be-lief, That on some so-lemn shore, Be-

Soprano II
There is an old be-lief, That on some so-lemn shore,

Alto
There is an old be-lief, That on some so-lemn shore, Be-

Tenor
There is an old be-lief, That on some so-lemn shore,

Bass I
There is an old be-lief, That on some so-lemn shore, Be-

Bass II
There is an old be-lief, That on some so-lemn shore, Beyond the sphere of grief dear friends shall meet once more,

4 p

Be-yond the sphere of grief dear friends shall

yond the sphere of grief dear friends shall meet once more,

Be-yond the sphere of grief dear yond the sphere of grief dear friends shall meet once yond the sphere of grief dear friends shall meet, shall meet once

7 pp Poco animando

— dear friends shall meet, — shall meet once more.

meet, — shall meet — once more. Be - — shall meet, — shall meet once more. Be - yond the sphere of friends shall meet, shall meet once more.

more, shall meet — once more. Be - yond the sphere of meet, shall meet — once more.

10 mf

Be - yond the sphere of Time and Sin, and Fate's — yond the sphere of Time and Sin, Be - yond the sphere of

Time and Sin, Be - yond the sphere of Time and Sin

Be - yond the sphere of Time and Sin Be - yond the sphere of

Time and Sin, Be - yond the sphere of Time and

Be - yond the sphere of Time and